

GED Resources

It is never too late to achieve your high school diploma equivalent. The resources below can help you attain your GED.

Tulsa City County Library

Online Resources

<https://www.tulsalibrary.org/programs-and-services/adults/test-prep-ged-more>

An online resource accessed through the library, Learning Express is a one-stop shop for practice tests, exercises, skill-building courses, eBooks, and other information to enhance your career. Take self-paced full-length practice tests in each GED subject area. You'll get detailed answer explanations for every question and score reports that will help you understand what your strengths and weaknesses are so that you can study more effectively!

Union Adult Education Center

<https://ualc.unionps.org/>

Union Public Schools believes in serving the whole community, not just students in PK-12 schools. To achieve this, Union provides free adult education classes to the community at the Union Adult Learning Center (UALC). UALC partners with Career Tech, CAP Tulsa, and other partners to provide GED and HiSET preparation classes, as well as English as a Second Language classes for those interested in furthering their education and expanding their knowledge and use of the English language.

Tulsa Community College

<https://www.tulsacc.edu/student-resources/testing-services/ged-exams>

The GED test provides an opportunity for individuals to earn the High School Equivalency Certificate. Included in the GED battery of tests are writing skills, social studies, science, interpreting literature and the arts, and mathematics.

Community Care College

<https://www.tulsacc.edu/student-resources/testing-services/ged-exams>

The GED test provides an opportunity for individuals to earn the High School Equivalency Certificate. Included in the GED battery of tests are writing skills, social studies, science, interpreting literature and the arts, and mathematics.

TCC's Northeast and Metro Campus Testing Centers offer the Computer Based GED.